

Middle-earth MemeForge

A Middle-earth fandom angle generator, separate from C-drama
Vibe Atlas and its CREATE handoff. Say the moment badly.
MemeForge finds the bit, then grounds it in a recognizable reaction image. Captions stay original.

SCENES

- Council of Elrond
- Helm's Deep
- The Grey Havens

MOODS

- melancholy Middle-earth
- cozy Shire
- ominous Mordor

● The still grounds the visual after the angle is chosen; it never decides or rewrites the joke. Always check the original publisher before sharing.

Meme Flavor

Choose the emotional grammar, not a copied template. Every result remains an original, source-grounded card.

- Auto / surprise me

Let the translated moment choose the emotional grammar.
- One Does Not Simply

Grave overstatement for a very ordinary obstacle.
- You Shall Not Pass

A dramatic hard stop for distractions and bad ideas.
- Taking the Hobbits to Isengard

Escalating loop energy for spirals, errands, and too many tabs.
- Second Breakfast

Little-treat logic that escalates immediately.
- Precious / My Precious

Lovingly unreasonable attachment to a niche fixation.
- Council of Elrond

Committee energy for group chats and decision paralysis.
- Samwise Loyalty

A loyal friend gently rejects the doomed solo plan.
- Gollum's Debate

Me-versus-me energy for a very bad internal negotiation.
- Unexpected Journey

How-did-I-get-here energy for an ordinary plan gone long.
- Mordor Commute

Ordinary dread reframed as an epic inconvenience.
- The Beacons Are Lit

Call-for-backup energy for a suddenly too-big problem.

Fly, You Fools

Log-off-now instinct for a bad idea that has gone too far.

I Am No Man

Exhausted competence for the person who has to solve it.

FIRM REFUSAL

A distraction, bad habit, or unreasonable request reaches a hard boundary.

BASELINE BIT

MY WEEKEND: CLOSED.
THE EMAIL: STILL TRYING.

A tiny nuisance is treated as an invader at the gate.

Visual object generated — Classic top/bottom layout frames the setup and punchline as opposing text bands around the reaction still, letting the severity inversion hit visually without added caption clutter.
